Contributors

(In alphabetical order)

Commander Jorge Garcia, United States Navy enlisted in the Navy in 1990, becoming an Electronics Technician. A year and a half later he entered the U.S. Naval Academy, graduating in 1995. His most recent tour was as the Executive Officer of RIVERINE SQUADRON THREE and included a combat deployment to Iraq. He has served aboard USS Cushing (DDG-985), USS Rentz (FFG-46), USS Nimitz (CVN-68) and USS Abraham Lincoln (CVN-72). He has participated in Maritime Interdiction Operations in the Northern Arabian Gulf, Counter Drugs operations in South America, and Humanitarian Relief operations in South East Asia. CDR Garcia attended U.S. Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey and served on the staffs of U.S. CENTCOM, as a member of J5 (Operations), and COMNAVAIRLANT, as a member of N9 (Nuclear Power).

Commander William Hines, Unites States Navy graduated with highest distinction from the Naval War College in June 2011. He holds degrees in engineering from the University of Virginia and business administration from Indiana University. He has served tours aboard USS New Jersey (BB-62) and USS Enterprise (CVN-65). He also served with the Army 360th Civil Affairs Brigade in Iraq. CDR Hine is currently in the Foreign Service Forces - Combat Advisors training course at Fort Polk, Louisiana in preparation for a deployment to Afghanistan.

Colonel Mark Maxwell, Unites States Army is the Staff Judge Advocate for V Corps in Germany. He considers North Carolina home, where he grew up in the Tidewater area. He attended undergraduate at Duke University and law school at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He entered the U.S. Army on active duty as a Judge Advocate in 1990 and has served around the globe. Max is married to Mary and they have a nine year old son who is a fan of Harry Potter and anything related to Legos.

Captain Sameer Saxena, Indian Navy graduated from the Naval War College in June 2011.

Supervisory Special Agent Vadim Thomas, FBI is a 16 year veteran of the FBI. He has spent his career investigating, and leading task force squads investigating, transnational criminal organizations such as Russian Organized Crime, Albanian Organized Crime, and South American Drug Organizations. In 2010, SSA Thomas served in Afghanistan on the Major Crimes Task Force-Corruptions Investigations Unit, mentoring Afghan investigators. SSA Thomas is married, has a daughter and a son, and is a graduate of University of Notre Dame, Tufts University Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and the U.S. Naval War College.