

Contributors

(In alphabetical order)

Commander David J. Hanley, United States Navy graduated from the College of Naval Warfare, Naval War College in February 2012. He also holds a bachelors degree from Springfield College and a graduate degree from the University of Texas. CDR Hanley has served at sea with the USMC and held a variety of billets with USN medical and line command. He currently serves as the Deputy Force Surgeon/Medical Planner at COMNAVSURFPAC.

Jeff R. Vogel, United States Maritime Administration (MarAd) is an Attorney-Advisor in MarAd's Office of Chief Counsel, Division of Maritime Programs providing legal oversight for various MarAd programs including the Title XI Federal Ship Financing Program, Capital Construction Fund, Construction Reserve Fund, and the Cargo Preference Program. Over the past two years, Mr. Vogel has also served as grants counsel for MarAd, overseeing the administration of the Transportation Investment Generating Economic Recovery Discretionary Grant Program. Mr. Vogel is a graduate of the University of Miami School of Law, Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science, and the University of Maryland.

Commander John Buser, United States Navy graduated from the University of Colorado at Boulder in 1995 with a degree in aerospace engineering. Designated a Naval Aviator in 1999, CDR Buser has served globally in a variety of operational and staff tours. Most recently, CDR Buser completed his joint tour on the Strategic Plans and Policy Directorate, The Joint Staff. Upon graduation from the Naval War College in November 2012, he will be stationed at NAS Patuxent River, Maryland to serve as Commander.