JULIEN J. LeBOURGEOIS VICE ADMIRAL, U.S. NAVY

Vice Admiral Julien Johnson LeBourgeois became the 37th President of the Naval War College on August 9, 1974 after serving two years as Chief of Staff to the Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic.

Born in Southern Pines, North Carolina, Admiral LeBourgeois was graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy with the Class of 1945 and served in the Pacific aboard U.S.S. Columbia in World War II. Following the war he served on destroyers, with the Office of Naval Intelligence, and as Assistant Naval Attaché in Tangier, Morocco.

After duty on the Staff of Commander Destroyer Flotilla Four and on the Joint Staff of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Admiral LeBourgeois placed the destroyer U.S.S. Blandy into commission as Executive Officer in November 1957 and was serving aboard that vessel when it transported the Unknown Soldiers of World War II and the Korean Conflict to Washington, D.C., for interment in Arlington National Cemetery. In January 1959, he attended the Armed Forces Staff College then assumed command of the destroyer U.S.S. Norris in Newport.

He then served on the Staff of Commander Destroyer Force, Atlantic Fleet and attended the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. He served in the Strategic Plans Division, Office of the Chief of Naval Operations and thereafter, in December 1962, he became Executive Assistant and Senior Aide to the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Plans and Policy.

Admiral LeBourgeois assumed command of the guided missile frigate U.S.S. Halsey in September 1965 including service with the U.S. Seventh Fleet. He was subsequently assigned to the Systems Analysis Division, Office of the Chief of Naval Operations and in April 1968 as Executive Assistant and Senior Aide to the Chief of Naval Operations, followed by assignment as Deputy Chief of Staff for Plans and Policy to NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Europe.

Admiral LeBourgeois has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal; Legion of Merit with gold star for second award; Bronze Star with Combat "V" and Navy Unit Commendation Ribbon with bronze star.

He and his wife, the former Miss Priscilla Alden Dudley of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, have two children: Julien Dudley and Anne Armour LeBourgeois. Their official residence is in Tamworth, New Hampshire.

COAT OF ARMS

The trident rising from the waves symbolizes mastery of maritime activities. The three tines of the trident allude to the requirement for the fundamental knowledge of strategy, tactics and logistics necessary to an increased understanding of naval warfare. The helmsman's wheel alludes to the objectives of the Naval War College and the laurel wreath which encircles the wheel symbolizes accomplishment of the mission.
