

INDEX

A

- Abduction, 274
Abu Jihad (Khalil El Wazir), Israeli assassination of, 195–196, 231
Academies of higher American learning: See Educational institutions
Ad hoc approach
 “exceptions” to UN Charter’s definition of self-defense, 282 low-intensity conflict policy-making executed on, 161 public debate in foreign policy thinking, 263
Adversarial nature of democratic institutions, effect of, 12–13
Afghanistan
 covert operations in, 290–291
 effect absence of legitimate government, 238
Agency relationship between government and people: See Social contracts Aggression
 aggressive regime/deterrence failure strategy, 27–39 condemnation of aggression, importance of systemic response of, 27–39
 defined, 61–62
 democracies, peaceful nature of, 127
 obligatio erga omnes, 59
 responses to multilateral: See Multilateral responses to aggression unilateral: See Unilateral responses to aggression
“Aggression armee”: See Armed attack
Airspace, anticipatory self-defense for violation of, 76
Alcoholic beverages, reciprocity principle affecting regulation of, 47–48, 319
Allende, US role in overthrow of, 124
America: See United States
Anarchy
 just war theory, application of, 104
 “Peace of God” movement, 158, 215
Ancient Greek states, classical view of statesmanship, 339–342
Anticipatory or preemptive self-defense, 74–78, 293–294
 Israeli actions in: See Israel
 Libya, 1986 US air strikes against, 299–300
 “reasonable” self-defense interpretations, 183–184, 228
 self-defense against terrorism as including deterrent attacks, 232 weapons of mass destruction, effect of, 128, 294
Antiwar movement aroused by Vietnam, contemporary effects of, 266, 270
Appeal of low-intensity aggression, 60–61
Aquinas, St. Thomas, 150, 171–172, 174–176, 209
Aristotle, classical view of statesmanship, 339–342
Armed attack
 anticipatory self-defense, 75
 Article 12, right to self-defense against, 57 construed, 64–66, 69, 182–183 drug trafficking equated to, 232 philosophical basis for prohibition against under international law, 109–114
Armed forces: See Military forces
Arrest of criminals from foreign jurisdiction: See Criminal acts and law enforcement
Arthashastra, 4–6
Article 1(1) of UN Charter purposes of UN stated in, 61
Article 2 of UN Charter
 interpretation of, 316–317

360 Index

- Jurisdiction, 52, 57
- Article 2(4) of UN Charter
 - Article 51, reconciling, 64–69
 - defined and construed, 61, 64–69, 172
 - humanitarian intervention, 78
 - Jeffersonian principles, 46
 - “nonintervention” principle of, 172–174, 182
 - Monroe Doctrine, 46
 - universal jurisdiction over violations of Article 2(4), effect of, 52
- Article 4 of UN Charter
 - fomenting civil strife, prohibition against, 57
- Article 7 of UN Charter
 - menacing international peace and order, prohibition against, 57
- Article 12 of UN Charter
 - self-defense, right to, 57
- Article 14 of UN Charter
 - supremacy of international law, 57
- Article 41 of UN Charter
 - economic sanctions under, 285
- Article 42 of UN Charter
 - Gulf War mandated by Security Council under, 182, 226
- Article 51 of UN Charter
 - air attack on terrorists targets (1986) in Libya consistent with, 51
 - “armed aggression,” construed, 64
 - Article 2(4), reconciling, 64–69
 - defensive actions based in, 38
 - drug trafficking, 319
 - historic US view, 70
 - interpretation of, 33–34, 182, 226, 231
 - See also* specific matters, this topic
 - Nicaragua case, effect of, 138
 - reporting requirement, 71
- “(The) Art of War” by Sun Tzu, 6–8
- Assad: See Syria
- Assassination, 3
 - decency, meeting minimum standards of, 105
 - defined, 123, 274, 281–282
 - drug lords, assassination of, 274–275
 - jus in bello of just war tradition, 163–165, 195–196, 213, 231
 - legal analysis, 281–282
 - military commander as legitimate subject of assassination, 143, 273–274
 - nature of, xv
 - secret intelligence support as classification of covert activities, 327
 - US role in, history of, 127
- Assistance to Soviet Union, support for, xvi–xvii, 80, 262
- Athenian democracy, classical view of statesmanship, 339–342
- Atomic bombs: See Weapons of mass destruction
- Augustine, 150, 209
- Avoidance of war
 - jus ad bellum, 192, 227
 - UN war-decision law based on, 184

B

- “Baby Doc” Duvalier of Haiti, covert activities, 327
- Bacteriological warfare: See Biological warfare
- Balance of power

- collective security concept eliminating alliances for, 81
- United States government (checks and balances)
 - covert activities: See Covert activities
 - executive branch: See President of US
 - legislative branch: See Congress of US
- Ball, George, 329
- Bangladesh, "evidence" of humanitarian intervention in, 228
- Barcelona Traction case, 58
- Bay of Pigs invasion
 - covert activities, discussion, 326, 331
 - realist viewpoint of, 92
- Biological warfare: See Weapons of mass destruction
- Books or manuals on war, just war tradition in, 152–153, 155, 192–193
- Borders or frontiers
 - competent authority (jus ad bellum) to use force, 212
 - discrimination and proportionality criteria, 162–163, 193–195, 232, 256
 - effect of military buildup on, 75–76
 - freezing of in post cold war era, effect, 119
 - human rights violations, crossing borders to arrest, 217–218
 - inviolable nature of, 217–218
 - just war theory and sovereignty affecting use of military force across, 157–160
- Bosnia, covert nature of operations in, 16
- Boycotts: See Sanctions or boycotts
- Burden of proof in international law, use of military force across borders, 160
- Bureaucratic selfishness, 321
- Bush, George (President of US)
 - "assassination prohibition" in administration of, 282
 - Cold War, 1992 State of Union address following end of, 255
 - Libya, air strikes against: See Libya
 - War Powers Resolution, acceptance of principles of, 187
- Bystanders or innocent lives, moral culpability for sacrifice of, 104

C

- Cambodia
 - North Vietnamese sanctuaries within, 72, 74
 - proportion requirement of jus in bello, 193
- Capitalism, democratic views affected by, 11–12
- Caroline test, 77
- Carter, Jimmy (President of US)
 - acceptance of principles of War Powers Resolution by, 187
 - Afghanistan, involvement in, 290
- "Case-by-case" approach to issues: See Ad hoc approach
- Castro, Fidel: See Cuba
- Casus belli: See Just cause
- Catholicism: See Christianity
- Cease fire treaty, Iraq's refusal to honor, 178, 219
- Censure or criticism of other states: See Condemnation
- Central Intelligence Agency (CIA): See Covert activities
- Certainty in nature of law, advantage of, 206, 234, 237
- Charter of United Nations
 - articles: See Article...
 - contemporary international law, discussion, 172–174, 182, 234
 - conventional warfare as model in, 4, 15, 227
 - "exceptions" to UN Charter's definition of self-defense, effect of, 282
 - expanding Charter to meet contemporary problems, 232–233, 236
 - intent, 60–62

362 Index

- sovereignty under, concept of, 56–58, 173
- terrorism as without scope of, 198
- Checks and balances: See Balance of power
- Che Guevara, influence of Sun Tzu's "Art of War," 6
- Chesterton, G.K., 252
- Childress, James F., 151
- Chile, US role in overthrow of Allende, 124, 326
- China
 - Manchurian invasion. See Manchuria, Japanese 1931 invasion of
 - Mao Tse Tung
 - collapse of Maoist/Dengist "gerontocracy," 254
 - "deceptive peasant," fear of, 166–167
 - Sun Tzu's "Art of War," influence of, 6
 - Tiananmen Square massacre
 - communitarian realist's view of, 95
 - democratic values, evolution of, 221–222
 - Tibet, covert activities in, 326
- Chivalric code: See Middle Ages
- "Choice of means" (jus in bello): See just war theory or tradition
- Christianity
 - assassination, Catholic thought on, 195
 - casus belli, Vatican's view of, 257
 - democratic views affected by, 10–11
 - future of Catholic debate, 261–262
 - ideological zealotry, challenges posed by, 161, 213
 - just war tradition, influence on, 147–151, 153
 - revolution, history of Catholic clergy's opposition to, 229
- Church, Senator, view of covert activities as last resort, 331–332
- CIA: See Covert activities
- Citizens and citizenship
 - coordination among civilian and military security forces, 267–271
 - "deceptive peasant," fear of, 166–167
 - defense of citizens abroad: See self-defense of nationals abroad, infra this topic
 - destabilization, jus in bello applied to, 165–166
 - discrimination principle (jus in bello), 162–163, 193–195, 232, 256
 - humanitarian intervention: See Humanitarian intervention
 - human rights: See Human rights
 - military force, just war tradition applied to use of, 155–156
 - noncombatant immunity, survival of, 256–257
 - rescue missions, justification of, 102–104
 - self-defense of nationals abroad
 - Entebbe, rescue at, 282
 - extension of claim, necessity of, 183, 232, 236
 - high seas, 71–72
 - legal analysis, 281–283
 - support: See Public support
 - terrorism: See Terrorism and counterterrorism
 - U-2 spy planes, civilian pilot used in, 276
- Civil affairs, generally, discussion, 320–321
- Civilians: See Citizens and citizenship
- Civilization, elements of, 87
- Civil strife, fomenting, prohibition under Article 4, 57
- Civil war
 - See also* specific matters
 - intervention in, prohibition against, 184–185
- Clandestine operations
 - competent authority concept, 186–189
 - covert activities, distinguished, 276

- intelligence-gathering: See Intelligence and intelligence-gathering
- Clark Amendment, 328
- Classical view of statesmanship, covert activities as within, 339–342
- “Clausewitzian” center of democracy, maintaining public support as, 205, 207, 233, 234, 236, 267, 288, 300, 335–336
- Clifford, Clark, view of covert activities as last resort, 331
- Cline, Ray, 336
- Codevilla, Angelo, 335–336
- Coercion
 - low-intensity conflict, purpose of, 90
 - purpose of low-intensity conflict, 90
- Cold war
 - Capitalism operating in, 12
 - contemporary military establishment resulting from, 269–271
 - covert activities, US initiation of, 336–338
 - maniacal states: See “Crazy states” factor
 - moral and cultural US environment following end of, 251–264
- Collective security concept
 - alliances for balance of power, elimination of, 81
 - international law, just war doctrine complementing, 228
 - modern warfare, just cause concept, 189
 - Nicaragua’s attempted overthrow of El Salvador, 242
- Colleges: See Educational institutions
- Communitarian realism, 93–94
 - critique, 95–96
 - democratic institutions, defense of, 96–97
- Comparative justice criterion, 190–191
 - Gulf War, defense of sovereignty of Kuwait, 222, 229
- Competent authority: See “Right” or competent authority (jus ad bellum)
- Complex operations, military’s ability to manage
 - 270
- Condemnation
 - Operation Just Cause, condemnation by OAS, 176–177, 275
 - standards of behavior, international expectations of, 59
 - systemic response of condemnation of aggression, importance of, 27–39
- Conduct of war (jus in bello): See Just war theory or tradition
- Congo, attempted assassination of Lamumba, 127
- Congress of US
 - covert activities, oversight of: See Covert activities
 - de facto loss of authority, Congress acting to prevent, 281
 - Intelligence Authorization Act, passage of, 281
 - intelligence community, investigation of (1970s), 328
 - Iran–Contra hearings, use of public funds for covert operations, 281, 325, 328
 - national security affairs, Congressional challenge to executive control of, 268
 - nuisance, Congress viewed as, 294–296
 - opinion polls, US government operating in reaction to, 265–266
 - “right” or competent authority, issue of, 158–159, 228
 - support of: See Public support
- Consent or permission
 - history of international law, 58
 - intervention: Invitation, intervention by
 - sovereignty under UN Charter, nature of, 56
- Consequence-oriented viewpoints, 111
- Consistency or inconsistency
 - pattern of continuing terrorism, justifying cross-border attacks, 232
 - preemptive bombing strikes, 223–224
- Constitutional law
 - democratic principles: See Democracies and democratic ideals

364 Index

- legal constraints: See Law and legal constraints
- Construction: See Interpretation or construction
- Containment of Soviet imperial expansion as secondary mission of US, 269
- Contingency operations
 - contemporary shift from insurgency/counterinsurgency operations to, 271
 - national security apparatus, absence of coordination in, 268
- Contracts between government and people
 - horizontal contracts: See Horizontal social contracts
 - vertical contracts: See Vertical social contracts
- “Conventional” warfare
 - Charter of UN, conventional warfare as model in, 4, 15, 227
 - contemporary US military establishment oriented to, 269–271
 - distinguished, xv
 - just war theory, application of, 167–168
 - sovereignty affected by, 143
 - state-sponsored terrorism as act of war, 161
 - World Wars I & II: See World War I; World War II
- Coordination among civilian and military security forces, 267–271
- Counterinsurgency or counterintervention: See Insurgency or counter-insurgency
- Counter-terrorism: See Terrorism and counterterrorism
- Coup d’etat
 - covert activities, classifications of, 326–327
 - nature of, xv
 - use of, 3
- Courts
 - See also* specific matters
 - illegitimate governments, low-intensity conflicts against, 103
 - International Court: See International Court of Justice
- Covert activities, 325–350
 - American perspectives on, 327–338
 - Assad as expert in covert low-intensity techniques, 279–280
 - checks and balances
 - Congressional oversight: See Congressional oversight, this topic
 - constitutional provisions, 327–328
 - clandestine operations, distinguished, 276
 - classical view of statesmanship, covert activities as within, 339–342
 - Congressional oversight, 289–290, 292, 295–296
 - Oversight Act of 1980, 286
 - coup d’etat, 326–327
 - defined, 325
 - democratic institutions, difficulties of, 13
 - discrimination and proportionality standards, 350
 - foreign policy, conduct consistent with, 332–334
 - Intelligence Authorization Act, passage of, 281
 - intelligence-gathering: See Intelligence and intelligence-gathering
 - Iran-Contra hearings, use of public funds for covert operations, 281, 325, 328
 - just war doctrine
 - application of, 276–277
 - jus in bello, application of, 165–166
 - meeting conditions of, 239
 - last resort, 289, 330–332
 - legal principles of early American law, 327–328, 343–345
 - legitimacy, 348–349
 - moral and legal accountability for, 283, 289–290, 293, 329–330, 338–345, 347
 - “open” covert operations, 333–334
 - paramilitary assistance, 326
 - policy guidelines for use of, 345–350
 - political matters: See Politics and political matters

- pragmatic argument for, 336
- propaganda, 325–326
- proportionality and discrimination standards, 350
- realist context, conducting covert activities in, 334–336
- secret intelligence support, 327
- Serbia, covert nature of operating, 16
- statecraft, covert action as instrument of, 325–350
- unconventional warfare, effect of covert nature of, 4
- “Crazy states” factor, 258
- diplomacy, seeking accommodation through, 275–276
- ideological zealotry, challenges posed by, 161, 213
- Credibility of government, importance of, 52–53
- Criminal acts and law enforcement
 - arrest of criminals from foreign jurisdiction, 47–48
 - Eichmann, seizure of, 102
 - Noriega, seizure of: See Panama
 - contemporary military force, role of, 271
 - distinguished, xv
 - drug trafficking: See Drugs and drug trafficking
 - just war doctrine applied to, 276–277
 - nation’s inability to deal with criminal organizations, 141
 - terrorism as criminal act: See Terrorism and counterterrorism
 - war criminals: See War crimes
- Cuba
 - attempted assassination of Castro, 127
 - Bay of Pigs invasion: See Bay of Pigs
 - covert operations of Fidel Castro, 16
 - illegitimate governments, low-intensity conflicts against, 103
 - Operation Urgent Fury, 311
 - US role in intervention, 117
- “Cuius regio, eius religio,” 10
- Culture and cultural matters
 - assassination, cultural problems with, 163–165, 213
 - global values, evolution of universal set of, 221–222
 - justice as culture specific, 213–214, 220, 227
 - legitimacy as culture specific, 210
 - low-intensity conflict, cultural and political constraints, 249–322
 - politics: See politics and political matters
 - post-cold war, moral and cultural US environment, 251–264
 - strategic culture (US) in small wars, 265–271
 - universal or communal standards, 315
- Custom and usage, restrictions imposed on sovereignty, 57–58

D

- Deception
 - American suspicion of use of, 293
 - disinformation: See Disinformation
 - intelligence-gathering: See Intelligence and intelligence-gathering
 - jus in bello principles applied to, 165–167, 194–195, 230–231
 - means mala in se (evil in itself), jus in bello applied to, 164–165
- Decision to use military force (jus ad bellum): See Just war theory or tradition
- Declaration of Human Rights (1948), Muslim nations’ refusal to endorse, 127
- De facto loss of authority, Congress acting to prevent, 281
- Defense
 - defined within context of international law, 152
 - self-defense: See Self-defense

366 Index

- Definitions: See specific words and phrases
- Democide, defined, 25
- Democracies and democratic ideals
- American history, effect of, 287–288
 - American strategic culture based on, 265
 - communitarianism, view of, 95
 - comparative justice criterion: See Comparative justice
 - covert actions by: See Covert actions
 - difficulties of, 10–20
 - engaging totalitarian regimes with rules of, policy of, 36–37
 - global values, evolution of, 221–222
 - Jefferson: See Jeffersonian democracy
 - jus ad bellum basis for intervention, 188
 - national interest of citizens in places of, 96–98
 - public support: See Public support
 - “right authority” category of jus ad bellum, 150, 158–159
 - strategic and political advantage of systems of, 317
 - vulnerability to low-intensity conflict, 120
- Democratic Party (US), leadership role of, 254
- Descriptive realism, defined, 91
- Desert Storm: See Gulf War
- Destabilization, application of jus in bello to cases of, 165–166
- Deterrence
- aggressive regime/deterrence failure strategy, 27–39
 - counterterrorist tactics as, 197–198
 - personal-level deterrence, 37–38, 128
 - preemptive self-defense: See Anticipatory or preemptive self-defense
 - self-defense against terrorism as including deterrent attacks, 232, 236
 - US military, deterrence of Soviet threat as main job of, 269
 - war criminals, deterrent effect of kidnapping of, 102
- de Vattel, Emerich, 184
- Dictators or tyrannical leaders
- See also* specific matters
 - assassination of: See Assassination
 - historical authority for military force, 158–159
 - international law as inadequate tool for dealing with, 137–138
 - judgment as to what constitutes, subjectivity of, 209, 211
 - maniacal states: See “Crazy states” factor
 - “reform” intervention: See “Reform” intervention
 - sovereignty, justification of, 100–101, 216–217, 319
- Diplomats and diplomacy
- seeking accommodation with “crazy states,” 275–276
 - treatment of diplomatic missions and pouches, 284
- Discrimination principle (jus in bello), 162–163, 193–195, 232, 256, 350
- Disinformation, 3
- Machiavelli’s “The Prince,” 8–10
 - Sun Tzu’s “Art of War,” 7
- Distrust of government, effect of, 53
- Divine Right of Kings, 54
- Doolittle, James, 337–338
- Double effect doctrine, described, 104
- Droit des gens (sovereign equality of States): See Intervention or Non-intervention
- Drugs and drug trafficking
- armed aggression, equating drug trafficking as, 232, 236
 - Article 51 of UN Charter, 319
 - assassination of drug lords, 274–275
 - cooperation with entities involved in export of, 3
 - expansion of international law to meet threat of, 81

historical authority for military force, 158–159
 intervention, sovereign nation's request for, 26, 200
 just war doctrine applied to, 199–200, 232
 military force, just cause for use of, 161–167
 Noriega (General), arrest of in Operation Just Cause: See Panama
 Peruvian trade: See Peru reciprocity, effect of, 47–48
 sovereignty
 just war tradition affecting use of force, 159
 nation's inability to deal with criminal organizations, 141

E

East bloc states, covert operations of, 16
 Economic redistribution of wealth, 308, 316
 Economic sanctions: See Sanctions or boycotts Educational institutions integrating moral and political ideas about low-intensity conflicts, 260, 262, 298–299 military officers in US forces, education level of, 270 “Egregious” violations of accepted rights human rights violations, what constitutes, 217–218 sovereignty affecting interventionary actions in cases of, 160, 248
 Egypt's Anwar Sadat, assassination of, 327
 Eichmann, Adolf, seizure of, 102
 Elizabeth I, 9
 El Salvador, attempted overthrow of government by Nicaragua: See Nicaragua
 Elusive nature of unconventional warfare, effect of, 4
 Embarrassment, avoiding covert activities causing, 332–334
 Emergency: See Last resort criteria
 Engaging totalitarian regimes with rules of law and democracy, policy of, 36–37
 Entebbe, rescue at, 282
 Environmental effects of Gulf War, report on, 34–35
 Equity, 50–52
 Ethnic hatred, challenges posed by, 161
 Evangelical religions, 261
 Evidence
 good faith, multilateral approaches to self-defense as evidence of, 48–49 humanitarian intervention, absence of “evidence” of, 186, 228–229, 236 intelligence-gathering for reasons of few known facts, effect of, 243 Security Council, presentation of evidence before, 38 use of military force across borders, burden of proof in, 160
 Executive branch: See President of US
 Extraterritorial jurisdiction: See Long arm statutes
 Extreme and moderate realism, 92

F

Fiat justitia, ruat coelum, 112
 Finland, hopeless resistance against 1940 USSR invasion, 190
 FM 27-10, treatment of deception under, 195, 230–231
 Fomenting civil strife, prohibition under Article 4 of UN Charter, 57
 Ford, Gerald (President of US), acceptance of principles of War Powers Resolution, 187
 Foreign Assistance Act, Hughes-Ryan Amendment to, 328
 Foreign jurisdiction
 extraterritorial jurisdiction: See Long arm statutes
 legal analysis of acts violating laws of, 284, 297–298 nationals abroad, defense of: See Citizens and citizenship

368 Index

seizure of criminal defendants from: See Criminal acts and law enforcement
Forfeiture of rights. See Waiver or forfeiture of rights
Foundationalist version of realism, 93–96
France
 Catholic clergy's opposition to French revolution, 229
 Louis IX, struggle to establish sovereign state, 174–175, 209 military's view of "revolutionary war" in third world, 269
Franklin, Ben, 287
Frontiers: See Borders or frontiers

G

Gelb, Leslie, 334–336
General Order No. 100 of 1863, 152
Genocide
 democide, defined, 25
 just cause criterion, 189, 259
 obligatio erga omnes, 59
 sovereignty, subversion of concept of, 217–218
Germany
 Eichmann, Adolf, kidnapping of, 102
 Hamadi brothers, exemption of 1985 TWA 847 terrorists from criminal justice systems, 35–36
 World War I, role of anticipatory self-defense in, 75
Germ warfare: See Weapons of mass destruction
Godfrey, E. Drexel, 330
Goldwater-Nichols Act of 1986, xvi
Good faith
 international law, 43–44
 multilateral approaches to self-defense as evidence of, 48–49
"Good ruler," application of just war tradition to, 154
Gratian, 150
Greek states, classical view of statesmanship, 339–342 Grenada, US intervention in issues affecting use of military force, 159–160, 310–311 legal analysis and just war analysis, distinguished, 238–239
Grotius, 150
Guerilla warfare
 covert activities, 326
 "deceptive peasant," fear of, 166–167
 nature of, xv
 terrorism: See Terrorism and counterterrorism
 use of, 3
Gulf War
 Article 42 enforcement action, 182, 226
 Catholic thinking following, 261–262
 comparative justice criterion, 222, 229
 de facto loss of authority, Congress acting to prevent, 281
 economic sanctions as alternative to, 165, 212–213 environmental damage caused by Gulf War, 34–35 issues affecting use of military force in, 159–160
 "lessons" of conflict, 30 limited ends, use of force to pursue, 289 news media's coverage of, 263 policy options, debate on, 251–252 proportionality
 last resort criteria, violation of, 150, 190 success, probability of, 229

Saddam Hussein: See Hussein, Saddam
 Security Council authorization of war by, 182–183, 226, 284–285, 292 effectiveness of, 81
 UN Resolution 636, 150
 self-defense, right of, 64
 sovereignty of Kuwait, defense of, 222, 229

H

Hague Rules of 1907, guidance on deception in, 230
 Haiti, covert activities in, 327
 Halperin, Morton, 330
 Hamadi brothers, exemption of 1985 TWA 847 terrorists from criminal justice systems, 35–36
 Hamilton, Alexander, 288
 Head of state, application of just war tradition to, 154
 Hegel, national interest from viewpoint of, 93
 Hehir, Fr. J. Bryan, 147
 Helsinki accord as contributing to downfall of USSR, 37
 High seas
 intervention on, 79
 self-defense of nationals abroad, 71–72
 High technology, military culture oriented to, 269
 History
 See also more specific topics
 Americans, absence of historical perspective, 265 unconventional warfare, 3–20
 Holy Roman Empire, Louis IX's struggle to establish sovereign state, 174–175, 209
 Holy war, revival of, 151
 Homicide: See Murder
 Honor, defined, 321
 Hopeless resistance by victims, application of comparative justice concept, 190
 Horizontal social contracts intervention, act of, 139–140
 sovereignty, justification of, 99–100
 Hughes-Ryan Amendment to Foreign Assistance Act, 328
 Humanitarian intervention, 78–79
 defined, 98
 genocidal government, saving others from, 189 meeting just cause criterion, 186, 228–229, 236
 Human rights
 See also specific matters
 borders, crossing borders to arrest human rights violations, 217–218 genocidal governments: See Genocide
 illegitimate governments, low-intensity conflicts against, 102–104
 international law, human rights approach to, 96–98
 just cause, expansion of principle of, 259–260 national preference, human rights as matter of, 159
 Nicaragua case, effect of, 139–140
 obligatio erga omnes, 59
 realism's indifference to, 90–96
 sovereignty
 core human right, sovereignty as, 248 international law, human rights approach to, 98
 Hussein, Saddam
 assassination, military commander as legitimate subject of, 143, 273–274
 human rights approach to international law, 97–98

370 Index

Kuwait: See Gulf War
legitimacy following Gulf War, 166 overthrow of, justification of, 103, 105
personal-level deterrence, 37–38, 128

I

Ideology

just war as, 315–316
maniacal zealotry: See “Crazy states” factor

Illegitimacy: See Legitimacy

Impartiality, problems of, 18–19

Inconsistency: See Consistency or inconsistency

India

humanitarian intervention in Bangladesh, “evidence” of, 228
nonintervention, exception to principle of, 185

Innocent host state to terrorist activities, 72–74, 232

Innocent lives or bystanders, moral culpability for sacrifice of, 104

Insurgency or counterinsurgency, 3

See also more specific topics

Afghanistan, effect absence of legitimate government, 238 contemporary shift to contingency operations from, 271

human rights approach to international law, 97–98

just war tradition, 165–166, 319–320

jus ad bellum, 186–192

jus in bello principle, 256

Kuwait, “lessons” of conflict, 30

terrorists: See Terrorism and counterterrorism

Intellectual instability in post-cold war period, 260–263

Intelligence and intelligence-gathering

Congressional investigation of (1970s), 328

espionage, intelligence viewed as, 309

expansion of US military role in, 270–271

FM27-10 permitting, 195, 230–231

just war doctrine applied to, 276–277

national security, Congressional challenge to executive control, 268

“operating in the dark,” difficulty of making informed decisions, 243, 292

secret intelligence support as classification of covert activities, 327

U2 spy planes, use of civilian pilots in, 276

Intelligence Authorization Act, passage of, 281

Intent or intention

“crazy states,” 258

UN Charter, 60–62

wrong intent: See Right intention (jus ad bellum)

Interdisciplinary approach to contemporary problems, 241–242

International Court of Justice

See also specific matters

Pan Am Flight 103, Libyan custody of agents accused of terrorism, 285 response to low-intensity conflict, view as to, 115

Internationalist vs. isolationist debate, 253–256, 264

International law

complementary role of just war doctrine in international law of war, 181–201, 226–233

commentary on, 205–208, 233–235

counterterrorist attacks launched by US and Israel, 197–198, 231–232, 236

definition, 247

domestic law, contrasted, 141–141

engaging totalitarian regimes with democratic rules of law, 36–37

- extraterritorial jurisdiction: See Long arm statutes claiming
- foreign legal experts, respect for US theories exhibited by, 244
- human rights approach to, 96–98
- interpretation or construction, 138, 213, 216
- Jeffersonian democratic influences, 44–48
- just war tradition: See Just war theory or tradition
- military force, issues in decision to use, 160
- morality of, absence of, 241
- nonintervention principle: See Intervention or nonintervention
- practices and expectations: See Practices and expectations
- recognition of state: See Recognition by international community
- sovereignty, matters relating to: See Sovereignty
- treaties: See Treaties
- UN Charter: See Charter of United Nations
- unconventional warfare as without ambit of, 4
- Weinberger Doctrine, absence of reference to law in, 234–235
- Interpretation or construction
 - armed attack, 64–66, 69, 182
 - Article 2 of UN Charter, 316–317
 - Article 2(4) of UN Charter, 61, 64–69
 - interpretation, 182–183
 - Article 51 of UN Charter, 33–34, 182, 226
 - inconsistency: See Consistency or inconsistency
 - international law as subject to, 138, 213, 216
 - just war tradition, allowance of force under, 213
 - realism, 110–113
 - self-defense: See Self-defense
- Intervention or nonintervention
 - See also* specific matters
 - droit des gens or “sovereign equality” principle
 - De Vattel, Emerich, 184
 - droit des gens (“sovereign equality”) principle in UN Charter, 56–58, 173
 - “egregious” violations of accepted rights, sovereignty affecting interventionary actions in cases of, 160
 - Grenada: See Grenada, US intervention in
 - history of US role in, 117–118, 124
 - humanitarian intervention: See Humanitarian intervention
 - insurgency: See Insurgency or counterinsurgency
 - invitation to effect: See Invitation, intervention by
 - isolationist vs. internationalist debate, 253–256, 264
 - Israel, strategy of: See Israel
 - just war theory: See Just war theory or tradition
 - nonintervention principle: See Article 2(4) of UN Charter
 - Panamanian intervention by US (1989) as “special case,” 50
 - post-Cold War world, effect of, 168
 - “reform” intervention: See “Reform” intervention
 - request for: See Invitation, intervention by
 - Schools of Paris and Salamanca, concept of justice developed in, 174–176
 - “Intimations of tradition,” communitarian realism, 93–96
- Invitation, intervention by
 - criteria under jus ad bellum for, 26, 188
 - drug trafficking, international law requirements, 26, 200
 - Gulf war, legitimacy of undemocratic government requesting assistance, 222
 - Nicaragua’s attempt to overthrow El Salvadoran government, 242
- Iran
 - history of US involvement and intervention, 118
 - Salman Rushdie, assassination order placed on, 127
- Iran-Contra hearings, examination of government role in covert operations, 281, 325, 328
- Iraq

372 Index

- cease fire treaty, effect of refusal to honor, 178, 219
- Israel's 1981 preemptive attack nuclear reactor at Osirak, 223–224, 297–298
- Kuwait, invasion of: See Gulf War
- Saddam Hussein: See Hussein, Saddam
- Shiite rebellion, US overt aid to, 165–166
- Ireland, history of Catholic clergy's opposition to, 229
- Islamic religion
 - alcoholic beverages, reciprocity principle affecting regulation of, 47–48, 319
 - ideological zealotry, challenges posed by, 161, 213
 - Shiite rebellion, US overt aid to, 165–166
 - women's rights, Muslim nations' refusal to endorse, 127
- Isolationist vs. internationalist debate, 253–256, 264
- Israel
 - assassination of Abu Jihad, 195–196, 231
 - counterterrorist strategy of, 197, 231–232
 - Eichmann kidnapping as violation of nation's sovereignty, 102
 - preemptive attacks
 - Iraq's nuclear reactor, 1981 attack on, 223–224, 297–298
 - June war of 1967, 183

J

- James, Henry, 300
- Japan
 - economic, power limited to, 253–254, 320
 - Manchurian invasion. See Manchuria, Japanese 1931 invasion of
- Jeffersonian democracy
 - capitalism, effect of, 12
 - culture, politics as product of, 209
 - international law, view of, 297
 - Monroe Doctrine, Jeffersonian ideals affecting application of, 46, 124
 - rule of law, self-defense affecting, 44–48
- John of Paris, 171–172
- Jordan, Israeli attacks on terrorists living in, 231–232
- "Judgment of God," Kant's view of war as, 87
- Jurisdiction
 - Article 2 of UN Charter, 52, 57
 - foreign jurisdiction: See Foreign jurisdiction
- Jus ad bellum ("war-decision law"): See Just War theory or tradition
- Jus cogens: See Peremptory norms (jus cogens) of international law
- Jus in bello ("war-conduct law"): See Just War theory or tradition
- Just cause (jus ad bellum)
 - cease fire treaty, effect of refusal to honor, 178
 - comparative justice: See Comparative justice criterion
 - described, 150, 189, 228–229
 - expansion of, 258–260, 277–278
 - humanitarian intervention: See Humanitarian intervention
 - "just revolution," what constitutes, 189, 229, 236
 - military force, use of, 158–159
 - self-defense as: See Self-defense
- Justice
 - comparative justice: See Comparative justice criterion
 - culture specific nature of, 213–214, 220, 227
 - overturning governments in interests of, 319
 - "right authority" concept of, 158
 - Schools of Paris and Salamanca, 174–176
 - "just revolution," what constitutes, 189, 229, 236

- Just war theory or tradition, 145–248, 303–313
See also specific matters
 Afghanistan situation, application to, 290
 American legal and moral thought on war, 151–154, 292–293 anarchy, application of, 104 clandestine operations, application to, 276
 complementary role of just war doctrine in international law of war, 181–201, 226–233
 commentary on, 205–208, 233–235
 conventional war viewed as, 87 counterinsurgency: See Insurgency or counterinsurgency
 counterterrorism: See Terrorism and counterterrorism
 covert activities: See Covert activities
 critique, 171–178
 defined, 88, 148, 277
 discrimination principle (jus in bello), 162–163, 193–193, 232, 256
 double effect doctrine, described, 104
 human rights approach to international law, 97–98
 ideology, just war as, 315–316 insurgency or counterinsurgency: See Insurgency or counterinsurgency jus ad bellum (“war-decision law”), 149–154, 167–168, 182–192 covert actions, 165
 framework of international law, complementing, 226–230, 235 issues in decision to use military force, 156–162
 just cause: See Just cause “right” authority: See “Right” or competent authority right intention: See Right intention jus in bello (“war-conduct law”), 149–154, 167–168, 192–196 discrimination principle, 162–163, 193–195, 232, 256
 framework of international law, complementing, 230–233 issues in choice of means, 162–167
 Shulcz-Weinberger debate, 157 legal analysis, distinguished, 238 moral constraints on low-intensity conflict, 145–248 proportion: See Proportion and proportionality doctrine
 terrorism: See Terrorism and counterterrorism who can undertake just war, 100–101

K

- Kant, Immanuel
 human rights and democratic institutions, 97, 106
 “judgment of God,” war as, 87
 Kautilya’s Arthashastra, 4–6
 Kellogg-Briand Treaty
 self-defense under, 62–63
 Kennan, George, 329
 Kennedy, John F.
 Bay of Pigs: See Bay of Pigs
 Laos, covert activities in, 326
 South Vietnamese government, 1963 removal of, 210
 Ker Frisbie Doctrine, 47
 Khalil El Wazir (Abu Jihad), Israeli assassination of, 195–196, 231
 Kidnapping: See more specific matters
 Kings
 Louis IX of France, struggle to establish sovereign state, 174–175, 209
 regicide, cultural uneasiness with concept of, 164, 213
 Kirkpatrick, Jean, 223–224

374 Index

Knowledge: See Intelligence and intelligence-gathering

Korea

- Mayaguez incident, 310
- proportion requirement of jus in bello, 193
- UN membership, effect absence of, 67
- Vietnam, distinguished from Korean war, 185

Kurds

- Turkish attack on, justifying, 239
- US overt aid to Kurdish rebellion in Iraq, 165–166

Kuwait: See Gulf War

L

Lamumba, Patrice, attempted assassination of, 127

Laos, covert activities, 326

“Larger” purpose doctrine used to justify loss of innocents, 104

Last resort criteria

- covert activities, 289, 330–332, 347–348
- destabilization, 166
- Gulf War, 150
- sovereignty and use of military force, 159

Law and legal constraints

- certainty in law, advantage of, 206, 234, 237
- competent authority discussed in terms of law, 186–189, 280
- constraint-oriented viewpoints, 111–112
- covert activities, early American law, 327–328, 343–345
- democratic principles: See Democracies and democratic ideals
- domestic and international law principles, 278–279, 280–283, 314
- enforcement issues: See Criminal acts and law enforcement
- extraterritorial jurisdiction: See Long arm statutes
- foreign jurisdiction: See Foreign jurisdiction
- foreign legal experts, respect for US theories exhibited by, 244
- history of America, effect of, 287–288
- ICJ: See International Court of Justice
- international law: See International law
- jurisdiction: See Jurisdiction
- just war analysis, distinguished, 238
- national security interest, legal options, 296
- reciprocity: See Reciprocity principle
- secret operations or activities, constitutional law affecting, 327–328
- sovereignty, Constitution as source of power, 54
- treaties: See Treaties
- UN Charter: See Charter of United Nations

Leaders and leadership

See also specific matters

- Congress: See Congress of US
- dictators: See Dictators or tyrannical leaders
- just war tradition, levels of application, 154–158
- necessity of, 253–256
- opinion polls, US government operating in reaction to, 265–266
- President: See President of US
- protracted conflicts, absence of leadership in, 269
- royalty as: See Kings

Lebanon, Israeli attacks on terrorists living in, 231–232

Legal constraints: See Law and legal constraints

Legislative branch: See Congress of US

Legislative intent of UN Charter, 60–62

- Legitimacy
 covert activities, 348–349
 critique of viewpoint on, 112–113, 129 culture specific, legitimacy as, 210
 defined, 110, 130
 democratic government, legitimacy based on, 222
 Hussein, legitimacy following Gulf War, 166 invitation, criteria under jus ad bellum for intervention by 188
 low-intensity operations against illegitimate government, 102–104 low-intensity operations against illegitimate state, 104 low-intensity operations against legitimate state, 101–102
 Peruvian government, questions of legitimacy relating to, 134, 136
 sovereignty, justification of, 98–100, 222
 Leninist tradition of “vanguard of the proletariat,” 187
 “Let justice be done though the heavens fall,” (fiat justitia, ruat coelum), 112
 Liberal democratic theory: See Democracies and democratic ideals
 Libya
 Article 51 of UN Charter, 1986 attack on terrorists targets consistent with, 51
 Article 41 sanctions against, 285
 Congressional issues, 281
 International Court of Justice, cases before, 115 jus ad bellum, conditions of, 161 national security interest, 1986 raid as issue of, 308
 Pan Am Flight 103, multilateral approach in dealing with terrorist attack on, 49
 Reagan’s speech concerning, 234 self-defense, US claim of in 1986 Libyan raid, 183, 197–198, 212, 232, 239, 299 state-sponsored terrorism supported by, 283
 “Lieber’s Code,,” 152
 Limited warfare: See Low intensity conflict
 Lincoln, Abraham, legitimacy questions relating to, 136
 Long arm statutes, 47–48
 drugs and drug trafficking, 200
 kidnapping fugitives, 116
 Louis IX of France, struggle to establish sovereign state, 174–175, 209
 Low-intensity conflict
See also more specific topics cultural and political restraints (US) on, 249–322 defined, xv, 3, 126, 215
 Joint Chiefs of Staff, 160–161 philosophical viewpoint, 89–90
 just war tradition: See Just war theory or tradition legal constraints on, 23–144 moral constraints on, 145–248 protracted conflicts, criticism of conduct of, 268–269
 sovereignty, issues surrounding: See Sovereignty
 Low-Intensity Conflict Board, status of, 268

M

- Machiavelli’s “The Prince,” 8–10
 “Mainline/oldline” Protestantism, growth of, 260–261
 Mala in se (evil in itself), jus in bello applied to, 164–165 Manchuria, Japanese 1931 invasion of equitable considerations, 50
 Kellogg-Briand Treaty, effectiveness of, 63
 Maniacal states: See “Crazy states” factor

376 Index

- Manuals or books on war, just war tradition in, 152–153, 155, 192–193
- Mao Tse Tung: See China
- Marcos, Ferdinand, covert operations in Philippines, 327
- Mayaguez incident, 310
- Means mala in se (evil in itself), jus in bello applied to, 164–165
- Media: See News media
- Medieval history: See Middle Ages
- Membership in UN, effect of absence of, 67
- Mexico, US cavalry's pursuit of "Pancho" Villa, 72
- Middle Ages
 - See also* specific matters
 - contemporary circumstances resembling, 215
 - "deceptive peasant," fear of, 166–167
 - roots of just war tradition in, 147–151, 158, 171–172, 215
 - wrong intention, fighting with, 164
- Middle East
 - See also* specific matters
 - history of US policy in, 119
 - Muslim religion: See Islamic religion
- Military force
 - assassination, military commander as legitimate subject of, 143, 273–274
 - borders of another state, crossing of: See Borders or frontiers
 - contemporary state of military establishment, state of, 269–271
 - coordination among civilian and military security forces, 267–271
 - effect of US military might, 120
 - just war tradition: See Just war theory of tradition
- Milosevic, Slobodan, covert nature of operating, 16
- Moderate and extreme realism, 92
- Modern liberal democracies, difficulties of, 10–20
- Mohammad Zia, assassination of, 327
- Molina and Soto, 150
- Monomaniacal states: See "Crazy states" factor
- Monroe Doctrine, Jeffersonian ideals affecting application of, 46, 124
- Moral justification and morality
 - American history, effect of, 287–288
 - "Clausewitzian" center of democracy, maintaining public support as, 205, 207, 233, 234, 236, 267, 288, 300, 335–336
 - covert activities, 283, 289–290, 293, 329–330, 338–345, 347
 - innocent lives, moral culpability for sacrifice of, 104
 - international law distinct from morality, 241
 - James, Henry, 300
 - just war tradition, moral constraints on low-intensity conflict, 145–248
 - American legal and moral thought, 151–154, 292–293
 - national security interest as standard, 279
 - nature of moral issues, discussion, 314–315
 - particular or universal nature of ethical theories, described, 111–113
 - policy-making: See Policy-making and policy language
 - politics and morality, pairing of, 252, 288
 - post-cold war world, US moral-cultural environment in, 251–264
 - realism, types of, 90–96
 - sovereignty, support for, 88–89, 105
 - universal set of global values, evolution of, 221–222
- Mujahedin: See Afghanistan
- Multilateral responses to aggression
 - See also* Unilateral responses to aggression
 - Security Council: See Security Council of UN
 - self-defense, multilateral approaches to, 48–49, 168
- Murder

assassination, relationship to murder, 164–165, 213, 273–274, 281–282 genocide: See Genocide
 regicide, cultural uneasiness about, 164, 213
 Muslim religion: See Islamic religion
 My Lai, effect of absence of discipline in field, 238

N

Narcotics: See Drugs and drug trafficking
 National Council of Churches (NCC-USA), pacifism in, 260–261
 National interest: See National security interest Nationalism or “national glory” communitarian and utilitarian realism, distinguished, 93, 95
 Holy Roman Empire, struggle of sovereign states to emerge from, 174–175
 Nationals: See Citizens and citizenship National security interest communitarian and utilitarian realism, 93–94 covert activities as last resort, 289, 330–332 extreme or moderate realism as justification for behavior, 92 human rights approach to international law affecting, 96–98
 legal options, 296
 Libya, 1986 air attacks on, 308 moral standard in policy-making decisions, 279, 310–311 normative realism: See Normative realism
 “Nation building,,” 188
 Natural law
 justice, natural law conception of, 175–176 just war theory, natural law as basis of, 192 modern natural law, discussion, 245–246, 313–314 peremptory norms as reflection of, 59
 Necessity, effect of sovereignty, 104–105
 Neighboring state, use of soil to violate others’ sovereignty, 72–74
 New nationalist vs. noninterventionist debate, 253–256, 264
 News media
 Congress, problems of dealing with, 295–296
 disinformation: See Disinformation
 Gulf War, coverage of, 263 public support, enlisting: See Public support
 Ngo Dinh Diem as dictator, removal of, 210–211 Nicaragua
 background, 242–243 competent authority, 186–189 defense of outcome, 143
 Iran-Contra hearings, use of public funds for covert operations, 281, 325
 ius ad bellum, 187
 legal analysis and just war analysis, distinguished, 238–240
 Operation Urgent Fury, purpose of, 311
 public information and support, importance of, 52, 301 “secret” attack, ignoring evidence of, 28 self-defense, limits placed on, 138–141 technical collection assets, over-reliance on, 269
 Noncombatants or civilians: See Citizens and citizenship
 Non-intervention: See Intervention or nonintervention
 Noninterventionist vs. new nationalist debate, 253–256, 264
 Nonmembership in UN, effect of, 67
 Noriega (General), arrest of: See Panama
 Normative realism, 91–92, 112, 133, 221

378 Index

critique of, 94–96
North Korea: See Korea
North/South issue of redistribution of wealth, 308, 316
North Vietnam: See Vietnam
NSC10/2, 337
Nuclear weapons: See Weapons of mass destruction
Nuremberg war crime principles, 128, 294

O

OAS (Organization of American States), condemnation of Operation Just Cause by, 176–177, 275
Objectives of unconventional warfare, 4
Obligatio erga omnes, 59
Oceans and seas: See High seas
“Open” covert operations, 333–334
Open warfare: See “Conventional” warfare
Operation Desert Storm: See Gulf War
Operation Just Cause: See Panama
“Operations other than war” See Low intensity conflict
Operation Urgent Fury, 311
Opinion polls, US government operating in reaction to, 265–266
Order: See Peace and order
Organization of American States (OAS), condemnation of Operation Just Cause by, 176–177, 275
Osirak, Israeli preemptive bombing of Iraqi nuclear reactor at, 223–224
Oversight Act of 1980, 286
Overt choice of means, just war theory applied to, 165–166

P

Pacifism and pacifists
National Council of Churches (NCC-USA), 260–261 philosophical position of, 88, 147–148, 150
“Pact of Paris”: See Kellogg-Briand Treaty
Paine, Thomas, 287–288
Palestinian Liberation Organization: See PLO
Panama
“armed attack,” what constitutes, 282–283
comparative justice concept, 191
issues affecting use of military force in, 159–160
legal analysis and just war analysis, distinguished, 238–239
legal and moral constraints affecting Operation Just Cause, 116, 210
nonintervention, exception to principle of, 185–186
Noriega, arrest of: See more specific lines throughout this topic Operation Just Cause: See more specific lines throughout this topic proportionality doctrine, application of, 275
“special case,” US 1989 Panamanian intervention as, 50 validity of action taken in Operation Just Cause, OAS condemnation of, 176–177, 275
Pan Am Flight 103
economic sanctions against Libya, 285 multilateral approach in dealing with attack on, 49
“Pancho” Villa, US cavalry’s pursuit of, 72
Paramilitary assistance, covert activities in form of, 326
Paris and Salamanca, Schools of, concept of justice developed in, 174–176
Particular or universal nature of ethical theories, described, 111–113
Pattern of aggression, effect of, 31–33 right of defense, 36, 38
Peace and order

- destabilization as tool for maintaining, 166, 319–320
- enforcement operations: See Low intensity conflict
- menacing peace and order, prohibition under Article 7, 57
- “Peace of God” movement, 158, 215
- “right authority” concept of, 158
- “Peace of God” movement, 158, 215
- Peace of Westphalia, 10
- Peremptory norms (jus cogens) of international law, 58–60
 - equity defense, 51–52
- Pericles, classical view of statesmanship, 339–342
- Permission: See Consent or permission
- Persian Gulf War: See Gulf War
- Personal-level deterrence, 37–38, 128
- Peru
 - drugs and drug trafficking
 - just war theory applied to, 199–200, 232
 - “Shining Path” (Sendero Luminoso), 144, 199, 232
 - questions of legitimacy of government, 134, 136
- Philip II of Spain, 9–10
- Philippines, US role in overthrow of government of, 326–327
- Philosophical roots of just war tradition, 147–151, 158, 171–172, 215
- Piracy, intervention on high seas, 79
- Plato
 - cave metaphor, application of, 131, 134, 247
 - communitarianism: See Communitarian realism
- Platt Amendment, effect of Cuban acceptance of, 117
- PLO (Palestinian Liberation Organization)
 - Abu Kihad, Israeli assassination of, 195–196, 231
 - “deceptive peasant,” fear of, 166–167
- Pluralistic nature of democratic institutions, effect of, 12–13
- Poison as means mala in se (evil in itself), 164–165
- Police: See Criminal acts and law enforcement
- Policy-making and policy language
 - covert actions as statecraft, 325–350
 - engaging totalitarian regimes with rule of law and democracy, 36–37
 - institutionalized process of policy-making, need for, 278, 310
 - just war tradition in policy debate, 154–162, 236, 313
 - legal and moral reasoning involved in, 246, 309
 - national security interest as moral standard in policy-making decisions, 279
- Politics and political matters
 - conflict, political nature of, xv
 - covert activities
 - ban of due to violation of American political values, 329–330
 - political action, covert activities in form of, 326
 - political embarrassment, avoiding, 332–334
 - culture
 - low-intensity conflict, US political and cultural constraints on, 249–322
 - politics as product of, 209
 - democratic governments: See Democracies and democratic ideals
 - leadership ability following end of cold war, 253–256
 - morality and politics, pairing of, 252, 288
 - strategic and political advantage of systems of, 317
 - strategic culture (US) in small wars, 265–271
 - strategy of political/psychological warfare as, 52–53
- Pollution of environment caused by Gulf War, 34–35
- Popular support: See Public support
- Post-cold war era: See Cold War
- Potential war criminals, deterrent effect of kidnapping, 102

380 Index

Practices and expectations

- international law, norm created under, 239
- Security Council resolutions, international law limited to, 240

Pragmatic argument for covert activities, 336

Preemptive self-defense: See Anticipatory or preemptive self-defense

President of US

See also specific matters

- limited executive authority to protect American lives, 280
- national security affairs, Congressional challenge to control of, 268
- opinion polls, US government operating in reaction to, 265–266
- “right” or competent authority (ius ad bellum), 228, 280
- War Powers Resolution, refusal to accept principle of, 187

Press: See News media

Preventive/attrition counterterror attacks, 197–198, 231–232

“(The) Prince” by Machiavelli, 8–10

Proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, ethical considerations, 178, 219–220

Proof: See Evidence

Propaganda, covert activities in, 325–326

Proportion and proportionality doctrine (just war theory)

- comparative justice concept, 190
- contemporary means of war as violation of, 150
- covert activities, 350
- drugs and drug trafficking, 200

Gulf war: See Gulf war importance of, 38

international law, guidelines under, 133

just cause, 150, 189

Nicaraguan conflict, 243

Panama’s strategic value to US, 275

“right authority” and “just cause,” 159

scorched earth policy applied to drug trade, 199

self-defense, right to, 66, 68–69, 226–227

sovereignty

effect of, 104–105

use of military force affected by, 159 specific issues in observing, 162–163

state-sponsored terrorism, ethical considerations in response to, 177–178 success, calculation of proportionality based on, 189, 229, 236

Vietnam, 275

Protracted conflicts, criticism of conduct of, 268–269

Psychological/political warfare as low-intensity conflict strategy, 52–53

Public support

“Clausewitzian” center of democracy, maintaining public support as, 205, 207, 233, 234, 236, 267, 288, 300, 335–336

multilateral approaches to conflict as enlisting, 48–49, 168 necessity of public support in democracy, 52–53, 159, 167–168, 260, 301

opinion polls, US government operating in reaction to, 265–266

policy-making, necessity for public debate, 278

unipolarity in post-cold war era, need for explanation of, 255–256

Punishment of wrongdoer, just war tradition as including, 212, 257

Purposes of UN stated in Article 1(1) of UN Charter, 61

Q

Qadhafi: See Libya

R

- “Radical regime syndrome,” 29
 - personal-level deterrence, 37–38
- Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, 326
- Raison de guerre, war-conduct requirement of proportion at level of, 193
- Raison d’etat, war-decision requirement of proportion at level of, 193
- Ramsey, Paul, 147, 153, 154, 276–277
- Reagan, Ronald (President of US)
 - covert activities: See more specific matters
 - Libya, Reagan’s speech concerning, 234
 - Nicaraguan conflict: See Nicaragua
 - Reagan Doctrine, xvi
 - Afghanistan, covert operations in, 290–291
 - Stimson Doctrine corollary, 50
 - unilateral actions of US during Reagan era, 120
 - War Powers Resolution, principles of, 187, 280–281
- Realism
 - Communitarian: See Communitarian realism
 - construction of, 110–113
 - covert activities conducted in realist context, 334–336
 - critique of, 94–96
 - normative realism: See Normative realism
 - policy debate, just war tradition in, 154–155
 - types of, 90–94
- Realpolitik, policy-making according to categories of, 252
- “Reasonableness,” standards of, 182–184, 186–192, 228, 234–235
- Reciprocity principle, 43–44, 46–48
 - international law dependent on, 233
 - US, special role of, 122, 237–238
- Recognition by international community
 - intervention, justification for, 188
 - membership in UN, effect of absence of, 67
 - wrongfully seized territory, Stimson and Reagan Doctrines applied to, 50
- Recovery of something wrongfully taken, just war tradition as including, 212, 257
- Redistribution of wealth, 308, 316
- Reform
 - American character, reformist zeal in, 248
 - military reform legislation of 1986, effect of, 268
- “Reform” intervention
 - American character, reformist zeal in, 248
 - right to engage in, absence of, 217
 - South Vietnamese government, 1963 removal of, 210
 - tyrannical leaders, judgment as to what constitutes, 209, 211
 - universal right of revolution affecting validity of, 216
- Regicide, cultural uneasiness about, 164, 213
- “Reinvigoration” of UN, effect of, 159–160, 168, 284, 299, 311–312
- Relativism, communitarian realism, 95
- Religion and religious matters
 - Christianity: See Christianity
 - “cuius regio, eius religio,” 10
 - Evangelical religions, 261
 - ideological zealotry, challenges posed by, 161, 213
 - just war tradition, influence on, 147–151, 153–154, 234
 - Muslims: See Islamic religion
 - teaching institutions, integrating moral and political ideas in, 260, 262, 298–299
- Reporting requirement of Article 51, 71

382 Index

- Reprisal: See Self-defense
- Republican Party (US), leadership role of, 254–255
- Request for help: See Invitation, intervention by
- Retorsion: See Self-defense
- Revenge: See Right intention
- Revolutions and revolutionary conflicts
 - Catholic clergy's opposition to, history of, 229
 - French military view of, 269
 - illegitimate governments, low-intensity conflicts against, 102–104
 - insurgency: See Insurgency or counterinsurgency
 - "just revolution," what constitutes, 189, 229, 236
 - protracted conflicts, absence of leadership in, 269
 - roots of just war tradition within, 215–216
- Right intention (jus ad bellum), 191–192
 - just cause, strict adherence to, 230
 - medieval sources, 150, 164
 - moral limits on discretionary powers, 159
 - Weinberger Doctrine, 157
- "Right" or competent authority (jus ad bellum)
 - balance of power in US government, 158–159, 228
 - definitions of, problematic nature of, 235–236
 - Gulf War, UN Resolution 636, 150
 - historical background, 158–159
 - law, competent authority discussed in terms of, 186–189, 280
 - Peace of God movement, 158, 215
 - sovereignty as issue in, 212, 248
- Rostow, Walt, 331
- Royalty: See Kings
- Rule of law: See International law
- Ruritania, humanitarian intervention in, 228–229
- Rushdie, Salman, assassination order placed on, 127
- Russia: See Soviet Union

S

- Sadat, assassination of, 327
- Saint...: See St.
- Salamanca School, Francisco de Vitoria, 150, 171–172, 175–176
- Salman Rushdie, assassination order placed on, 127
- Sanctions or boycotts
 - Gulf War, allowing additional time for sanctions prior to resort to, 212–213
 - Libya, Article 41 sanctions against, 285
 - military force preferable to, 165, 298
- Sanctuary for aggressor force, innocent nation acting as, 72–74
- Schools: See Educational institutions
- Schools of Paris and Salamanca, concept of justice developed in, 174–176
- Scorched earth policy applied to drug trade, 199
- Seas and oceans: See High seas
- Secret intelligence support as classification of covert activities, 327
- Secret operations or activities
 - clandestine operations: See Clandestine operations
 - Constitutional convention of 1787, 327–328
 - covert operations: See Covert activities
 - nature of low-intensity engagement, 289
- Security Council of UN
 - evidence of aggression, presentation of, 38
 - future auditing function over nuclear weapons, 299

- Gulf War, mandate for: See Gulf War
- Israel's counterterrorist tactics, UN view of, 197
- practice and expectations as creating norm, review of, 239
- "reinvigoration" of, effect, 159–160, 168, 284, 299, 311–312
- reporting requirement of Article 51, 71
- self-defense, right of, 64, 231
- Security forces of US, coordination among civilian and military personnel, 267–271
- Seizure of criminal defendants: See Criminal matters and law enforcement
- Self-defense
 - anticipatory self-defense: See Anticipatory self-defense
 - Article 51, interpretations of self defense in: See Article 51 of UN Charter
 - Article 12, right to self-defense from armed attack, 57
 - collective self-defense: See Collective security concept
 - defined, 98, 236
 - equitable considerations, 50–52
 - "exceptions" to UN Charter's definition of self-defense, effect of, 282
 - historic US view, 70–71
 - importance of systemic support of, 27–39
 - innocent host state to terrorist activities, 72–74, 232
 - International Court's view of, 115
 - Nicaragua case, 138–141
 - interpretation, 33–34, 37, 282
 - Article 51, interpretations of self defense in: See Article 51 of UN Charter
 - "reasonable" approaches to question of, 182–184
 - Israel's counterterrorist attacks based on, 197
 - just cause, criterion under, 257
 - Libya, US claim of self-defense in 1986 Libyan raid, 183, 197–198, 212, 232, 239, 299
 - multilateral approaches, 48–49, 168
 - national abroad, self-defense of: See Citizens and citizenship
 - Nicaragua case, limits placed on self-defense in, 138–141
 - nuclear weapons: See Weapons of mass destruction
 - pattern of aggression, right of defense, 31–33, 36, 38
 - preemptive self-defense: See Anticipatory or preemptive self-defense
 - "reasonable" claim of self-defense, just war doctrine to determine, 184, 186–192, 234
 - rule of law affected by need for, 44–46
 - scope of right to, 62–69
 - weapons of mass destruction: See Weapons of mass destruction
- Self-help: See Self-defense
- Self-preservation: See Self-defense
- Sendero Luminoso, 144, 199, 232
- Serbia, covert nature of operating, 16
- Shiite rebellion in Iraq, US overt aid to, 165–166
- "Shining Path" (Sendero Luminoso), 144, 199, 232
- Shultz-Weinberger debate
 - international law, absence of inclusion in Weinberger Doctrine, 234–235
 - jus ad bellum, translating into policy language, 156–157, 313
 - revival of just war tradition in Weinberger Doctrine, 207, 211
 - "right authority" principle, 159
- Skorczyeny, Otto, 274
- Slavery and slave trade
 - economic reasons for, effect of, 221
 - high seas, intervention on, 79
 - obligatio erga omnes, 59
- Small wars: See Low-intensity conflict
- Smith, Michael Joseph, 336
- Social contracts
 - horizontal contracts: See Horizontal social contracts
 - vertical contracts: See Vertical social contracts

384 Index

- Social turmoil, distinguished, xv
- Soto and Molina, 150
- South Korea: See Korea
- South Vietnam: See Vietnam
- Sovereignty, 23–144
 - borders of another state, military force used to cross: See Borders or frontiers
 - criminal organizations, nation's inability to deal with, 141
 - defined, 53, 110, 129–130, 133
 - dictators or tyrannical leaders, removal of, 100–101, 216–217, 319
 - droit des gens (“sovereign equality”): See Intervention or nonintervention
 - “egregious” violations of accepted rights, intervention in cases of, 160
 - frontiers: See Borders or frontiers
 - history, 53–60
 - human rights: See Human rights
 - international law as basis of protection of, 109–114
 - intervention: See Intervention or nonintervention
 - inviolable nature of, 259
 - invitation: See Invitation, intervention by
 - justification of, 98–100
 - legal constraints on low-intensity conflict, 25–39, 114
 - countering low-intensity conflict, 43–82
 - legitimacy: See Legitimacy
 - military force used to cross another state's borders: See Borders or frontiers
 - panel discussion, 115–144
 - philosophical analysis, 87–106
 - critique, 109–114
 - proportion: See Proportion and proportionality doctrine
 - request for help: See Invitation, intervention by
 - Schools of Paris and Salamanca, concept of justice developed in, 174–176
 - “sovereign equality” (droit des gens): See Intervention or nonintervention
- Soviet Union
 - breakup of empire, challenges arising from, 161, 254
 - Catholic clergy's opposition to Russian revolution, 229
 - contemporary military establishment resulting from cold war with, 269–271
 - economic assistance to, xvi–xvii, 80, 262
 - Finland, hopeless resistance against 1940 USSR invasion, 190
 - Helsinki human rights affecting downfall of USSR, 37
 - Leninist tradition of “vanguard of the proletariat,” 187
 - Operation Urgent Fury, purpose of, 311
 - “reinvigoration” of UN, effect of, 159–160, 168, 284
- Spain, challenging imposition of Spanish rule in new world, 175–176
- Special Operations Command, 286–287, 300
- Sri Lanka as exception to principle of nonintervention, 185
- St. Augustine, 150, 209
- St. Louis IX of France, struggle to establish sovereign state, 174–175, 209
- St. Thomas Aquinas, 150, 171–172, 174–176, 209
- “State of nature” version of realism, 92
- State-sponsored terrorism: See Terrorism and counterterrorism
- Stimson Doctrine, described, 50
- Strategic culture (US) in small wars, 265–271
 - defined, 266
- Suares, 150
- Subversion, nature of, xv
- Success, reasonable prospect of
 - calculation of proportionality, 189, 229, 236
 - destabilization, 166
 - every day use of, importance of, 238
 - Libya, US 1986 attack on, 178

- moral limits encompassing, 159
- Sun Tzu's "The Art of War," 6–8
- Support: See Public support
- Supremacy of international law provision under Article 14 of UN Charter, 57
- Syria
 - Assad as expert in covert low-intensity techniques, 279–280
 - counterterrorism strategies, 197–198
 - state-sponsored terrorism as act of war, 161

T

- Teaching institutions, integrating moral and political ideas in, 260, 262, 298–299
- Technology, military culture oriented to, 269
- Terrorism and counterterrorism
 - See also* specific matters
 - criminal justice systems
 - exemption of terrorists from, 35–36
 - terrorism as within ambit of, 276, 308
 - executive limited authority of US President regarding, 280
 - historical authority for military force, 158–159
 - innocent host state to terrorist activities, 72–74, 231
 - Israeli handling of: See Israel
 - just war doctrine
 - See also* specific matters, this topic
 - counterterror operations, application to, 196–199, 231–232, 236
 - low-intensity conflict, defined, 160–161
 - military force, just cause for use of, 161–167
 - nationals abroad, defense of: See Citizens and citizenship
 - nature of, xv
 - preemptive strikes: See Anticipatory or preemptive self-defense
 - state-sponsored terrorism
 - act of war, state-sponsored terrorism as, 161
 - ethical considerations, 177–178
 - history of US view of, 299–300
 - Libyan involvement, 283
- Theological influence on just war tradition, 147–151
- Thirty Years War, 10
- Thomas Aquinas, 150, 171–172, 174–176, 209
- Thucydides, classical view of statesmanship, 339–342
- Tiananmen Square massacre: See China
- Tibet, covert activities in, 326
- Tradition
 - "intimations of tradition," communitarian realism, 93–96
 - just war: See Just war theory or tradition
- Treaties
 - See also* specific matters
 - interpretation of, 138
 - Iraq's refusal to honor cease fire treaty, effect of, 178, 219
 - mitigating damage from breaking of, 49–50
 - self-imposed limits placed on sovereignty, 57–58
- Treverton, Gregory, view of covert activities, 333
- Truman, Harry (President of US)
 - cold war giving rise to need for covert activities, 336–338
 - covert activities conducted within realist context, 336
- Turner, Admiral Stansfield, view of covert activities, 332–333
- TWA 847 hijacking (1985), exemption of terrorists from criminal justice systems, 35–36
- Tyrannical leaders: See Dictators or tyrannical leaders

U

- Uganda, "evidence" of humanitarian intervention in, 228
- "Unclean hands" doctrine affecting equitable relief, 51
- Unconventional warfare: See Low intensity conflict
- Unilateral responses to aggression
 - See also* Multilateral responses to aggression
 - limits placed on by international organizations, 213
 - self-defense matters: See Self-defense
- Unipolarity, need for explanation of, 255–256
- United Nations
 - Charter of: See Charter of United Nations
 - Gulf War, Security Council's role in: See Gulf War
 - history, 28
 - limitations on use of, xviii
 - post-cold war state of, 254
 - "reasonable" self-defense interpretations, 183–184
 - "reinvigoration" of, effect, 159–160, 168, 284, 299, 311–312
 - Security Council: See Security Council of United Nations
- United States
 - See also* more specific topics
 - checks and balances: See Balance of power
 - history of America, effect on American character, 287–288
 - legal and moral thought on war and policymaking, 151–154, 292–293
 - political and cultural constraints on limited warfare, 249–322
 - post-cold war world, moral-cultural environment in, 251–264
 - reformist zeal in American character, 248
- Universities: See Educational institutions
- Usage and custom, restrictions imposed on sovereignty, 57–58
- U-2 spy planes, civilian pilot used in, 276
- USSR: See Soviet Union
- Utilitarian realism, 93–94
 - critique, 94–96
 - national interest, what constitutes, 97

V

- Values: See Moral justification and morality
- Vance, Cyrus, view of covert activities as last resort, 331
- Vattel, Emerich de Vattel, 184
- Vengeance: See Right intention
- Vertical social contracts
 - defined, 91
 - intervention, act of, 139–140
 - sovereignty, justification of, 99–100
- Vienna Convention,, 284
- Vietnam
 - antiwar movement, contemporary effects of, 266, 270
 - Cambodian involvement: See Cambodia
 - "deceptive peasant," fear of, 166–167
 - invitation, criteria under jus ad bellum for intervention by
 - 188
 - low-intensity conflict, defined by Joint Chiefs of Staff, 160–161
 - "mixed" conflict, nature of, xv
 - My Lai, effect of absence of discipline in field, 238
 - North Korea, distinguished, 185
 - proportionality doctrine applied to, 275 public support, importance of, 205, 207, 233

 "reform" intervention, removal of South Vietnamese government (1963), 210
 "Violent peace," 3
 Kautilya's Arthashastra, 4–6
 Machiavelli's "The Prince," 8–10
 Sun Tzu's "Art of War," 6–8
 Virtue theory, defined, 89
 Vitoria of Salamanca, 150, 171–172, 175–176
 Volunteers in just war, 100–101

W

Waiver or forfeiture of rights illegitimate governments, low-intensity operations against, 102–104 social contracts, breaking of, 99–100
 War: See more specific topics
 War-avoidance: See Avoidance of war, 184
 "War-conduct law" (jus in bello): See just war theory or tradition
 War crimes
 Nuremberg war crime principles, 128, 294
 seizure of war criminal as violation of nation's sovereignty, 102
 "War-decision law" (jus ad bellum): See Just war theory or tradition War Powers Resolution
 described, 266, 280–281, 292, 300, 309, 318
 presidential refusal to accept principle of, 187 Weapons of mass destruction
 maniacal states: See "Crazy states" factor military culture oriented to, 269 proliferation of, ethical considerations, 178, 219–220 Security Council, future auditing function of, 299
 self-defense
 anticipatory self-defense, 75, 77–78, 128, 223–224, 294
 right to, 65
 "Weinberger doctrine": See Shultz-Weinberger debate
 Wimbledon case, self-imposed limits placed on sovereignty, 58
 Women's rights, Muslim nations' refusal to endorse, 127
 Words and phrases: See specific definitions World War I
 international law, collapse of, 181 role of anticipatory self-defense in, 75
 World War II
 international law, collapse of, 181
 Skorczyeny, Otto, 274
 Wrong...: See Right...
 Wrongful taking of property, just war tradition as including recovery of, 212, 257

Z

Zealotry: See "Crazy states" factor
 Zia, assassination of, 327