Newport is a beautiful and historic sea-side community and a thriving summer vacation destination. Participants are encouraged to make their lodging reservations as early as possible to avoid the summer rush. For more information regarding accommodations, attractions, and places and events of interest in Newport, please navigate to www.gonewport.com

ATTIRE

The uniform for military personnel is U.S. Marine Corps Service “C,” U.S. Navy Service Khaki, or service equivalent. The appropriate attire for civilian participants is Business Casual.

CLASSIFICATION

The workshop will be unclassified.

WEATHER

June weather in Newport is usually pleasant with mild days and cool evenings. A raincoat or light topcoat is recommended plus a sweater for casual dress. It is recommended that you check an on-line weather service prior to travel (for reference, the Newport, RI zip code is 02840).

* (Any reference to non-DoD businesses or organizations in this document is provided as a service to conference participants and does not constitute endorsement by the U.S. Naval War College, the U.S. Navy, or the Department of Defense.)

TRAVEL TO NEWPORT

<http://www.usnwc.edu/About/Directions.aspx>

Commercial Air Most major carriers and commuter lines provide regularly scheduled service to T. F. Green Airport (PVD), located just south of Providence, Rhode Island. This is the closest airport to Newport.

Shuttle Vans The Cozy Cab Newport Shuttle provides scheduled service between T. F. Green Airport and the hotels listed in the Accommodations section. Cost is $25 per person for a one-way trip. If you choose to travel by shuttle, we strongly recommend a shuttle reservation. You may make a reservation with Cozy Cab by calling (401) 846-2500 or (800) 846-1502.

Taxis Taxi fare from T. F. Green Airport to Newport (one way) is approximately $80. There are currently three taxi companies with access to Naval Station Newport:

- A1 Car & Cab.....(401) 841-0411
- Cozy Cab(401) 846-2500
- Orange Cab(401) 846-1994

Railroad AMTRAK provides direct passenger service to Providence and Kingston (closest to Newport) stations from Washington, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston. There are no rental car outlets at either station; however, taxis will provide service by advance reservation.

Driving Directions

From the North via Interstate 95:

I-95 to Rt. 4 south (Exit 9 on the left) which will become Rt. 1. Exit onto Rt. 138 east and proceed over the Jamestown and Newport Bridges ($5 toll). After Newport Bridge, remain on Rt. 138. Take right at end of ramp (Newport Slots will be in front of you). Go halfway around rotary, exit, continue straight through light to Gate 1 Naval Station Newport.

From the South via Interstate 95:

I-95 north to Route 138 east past the University of Rhode Island. Head briefly north when Rt. 138 and Rt. 1 merge, then continue on Rt. 138 east over the Jamestown and Newport bridges ($5 toll). After Newport Bridge, remain on Rt. 138. Take right at end of ramp (Newport Slots will be in front of you). Go halfway around rotary, exit, continue straight through light to Gate 1 Naval Station Newport.

From Boston/Rt. 24:

South via I-93 to Rt. 24 to Rt. 114. Continue Rt. 114 south, 6 miles to stop light for Coddington Hwy. Turn right onto Coddington Hwy. Pass Gate 4. Go ¼ way around rotary then exit. Continue straight (west) to stop light. Proceed to Gate 1 Naval Station Newport.

BASE ACCESS & PARKING

Naval Station Newport and the Naval War College are secure military facilities. If you have a U.S. Government-issued Common Access Card (CAC) you may enter the base by presenting your card and rental car agreement to the gate guard. Registered participants that do not have a U.S. Government CAC will be provided information regarding base access prior to the conference.

After entering Naval Station Newport through Gate 1, turn left at the stop sign. Follow the road as it passes tennis courts on the right, then make a right up the hill to the Naval War College guard shack. Give the guard your name and proceed through the gate to parking as directed by the guard.
